

JVPS Student of the Month
February 2017

Martin Valencia
High School Junior

Martin Valencia is a Junior and member of the Class of 2018. With an exceptional personality, Martin is a hard working student in all of his classes and has a great approach toward learning. Kind, polite, caring, energetic, and driven to succeed are words that can be used to describe Martin and his character. His academic achievements include a 3.657 CUM G.P.A. and being on the High School "A" Honor Roll every semester. Martin's involvement with high school programs, organizations, and athletics include AVID, FFA, National Honor Society, and being a positive and strong team member of the Junior Varsity Basketball Team. Martin is an active leader as the Junior Class President and as a past participant in the Youth Action Leadership Academy during the Fall. He has made multiple presentations to the Board of Education regarding Prom 2017 and was instrumental in fundraising efforts for prom. It is because of his character, academic achievements, school involvement and leaderships roles that Martin has been selected as the JVPS "Student of the Month" for February 2017.
