

JVPS Student of the Month
May 2017

Edward Shije
High School Freshman

Edward Shije is a hard-working, intelligent student with a positive attitude and a good sense of humor. Throughout his Freshman year and through his diligent effort, Edward has maintained an excellent GPA placing him on the "A Honor Roll." He knows the value of an education and puts forth the effort to excel. Edward is a model student and athlete, which is exhibited through his dedication and dependability in the classroom and on the baseball field. He impresses with his quick wit and his love of humor. Edward has faced struggles in his life, but pushes forward and exhibits a surprising strength in one so young. It is because of his character and academic achievements that Edward has been selected as the JVPS' "Student of the Month" for May 2017.
